

The HIV & AIDS Legal Clinic Ontario (HALCO) is moving on May 27, 2016

As announced, we are moving to:

55 University Avenue, Suite 1400
Toronto, Ontario M5J 2H7

Our new office is just south of the fully accessible St. Andrew subway station at University Avenue and King Street West. Our telephone, FAX, website and email contact information will not change.

To minimize service disruption, our move is scheduled to take place on the last weekend of May, but our office will be closed on Friday, May 27 and Monday, May 30.

Our new office will open on Tuesday May 31 at 9 a.m.

Our move is the exciting result of a co-location project. The specialty legal clinics co-locating with us are Advocacy Centre for Tenants Ontario, ARCH Disability Law Centre, Canadian Environmental Law Association, Income Security Advocacy Centre, Industrial Accidents Victims Group Ontario, Justice for Children and Youth, and Landlord's Self Help Centre. The Association of Community Legal Clinics of Ontario will also share the space. Although we will be sharing common space with other legal clinics, we will have a separate office and reception area. HALCO will continue to be an independent community-based legal clinic with a board of directors, the majority of whom must be living with HIV.

As always, our primary focus continues to be the provision of free legal services for people with HIV in Ontario. We practice a very broad range of law, and people can visit our office or call us at 416-340-7790 or toll-free at 1-888-705-8889. Our intake hours for new legal inquiries are Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Our new pamphlet is available in print and on our website as a pdf: www.halco.org/wp-content/uploads/2016/05/HALCO_NEW_pamphlet_with_new_address-2016May.pdf.

For print copies of our new pamphlet, or if you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact us.
